

THE LORD SPEAKS

RECEIVED THROUGH THE INNER WORD

BY

JOHANNES WIDMANN

Translated by Anne Heine

I AM YOUR VICTORY

I want to draw your attention to something that will be of great importance in coming days. You will be forced to struggle with the darkness whether you like it or not. This great battle of Armageddon will upset your hearts very much, and you will have to fight a mighty battle in My name - for only in this way you can be victorious. I shall give you an example:

The darkness is looking at you and knows you very well, but do not be afraid, for I, too, know you and am looking at you, and since you are Mine you can be certain of My protection.

The people of your days - I am saying this to their shame - knowingly, or sometimes unknowingly, come to terms with the darkness.

How do they do that? They implore the darkness for power, wealth and honours and they receive it from the darkness. But this demands in exchange that these people give their hearts to it, thereby becoming slaves to the darkness.

If you want to be loyal to Me, then listen to My advice: Do not strive so much for material things, for to those the darkness is usually still clinging. Love a simple life! Ask only for bare necessities to enable you to serve Me where required.

Everyone who desires something that is not for the benefit of the whole community or more than he needs for his existence, is already involved with those whom I shall call servants of the darkness. Look at the people around you, how much they crave for the things that belong to the lord of the world! This angers Me and I shall not allow it to continue.

Once I said: "Do not care about the material things, for they will perish. Seek the Kingdom of God first and everything else that you need will be given to you in abundance.

I implore you: Do not ask for material riches which you have no intention of using in My service or which you do not feel worthy of administering in My name.

A true child of Mine says: "Lord, I am a wanderer on this earth. I am satisfied with my clothes and what I need for my daily life." That, My children, is the poverty I request of you, for such poverty makes you pure and loyal to Me.

You have still many desires which cannot be satisfied by Me. Why do you crave the gifts of the one that wants to ban you into matter? Why? I have planned a life for you that will give you happiness and joy, but not in the flesh, spiritually. Those who wish to be happy in the flesh have, unfortunately, made a pact with the prince of darkness. It is difficult to save such people, for they are intoxicated with the drink from hell and their spirit is confused. To help them you have to shower My Holy Ghost upon them that they may realise their guilt and how they are acting against Me.

The desires that I cannot grant you, but the prince of darkness will, are the greatest evil.

This, My children, is a very important lesson, for if you want to free yourselves from the darkness and be victorious, then you must not eat out of its hands like beggars.

Raise your desire to My divine values and say: "Lord, I want from You all that You are willing to give us for our benefit." This request will make you righteous to such a degree that the darkness will not touch you any more. Why? Because you do not want any of its treasures, you expect everything of Me, and I must give you everything, also My personal protection.

You often wonder why there are so few miracles in these days. The reason for this is the weak faith of people. You must not only firmly concentrate on your wish without the least doubt that it will be granted, but you must also say: "Lord, You are the only One to help me. I need only You. You shall be everything to me; healing for the brother, blessing for the sister, salvation for all created beings."

You people of the present time are no longer aware of your true life and its correlations. You are as if blind in many ways and that is why I have given you this lesson.

In every need of your life you should call out:

"JESUS, HELP! JESUS, PROTECT US! JESUS
GIVE TO US! JESUS, HEAL US! JESUS,
CONQUER! JESUS, FREE US AND ALL BEINGS! JESUS, BE WITH US EVERY DAY!

With such short supplications you will overcome the world and ban the darkness to make it bend helplessly before Me. However, you have to ask Me to save you. I have to enter into your life to help, for you cannot fight the darkness yourselves.

AMEN.

ABOUT THE BLISS OF MY PRESENCE.

Everything depends on My presence within you, for without this you are in many ways at the mercy of the darkness. But if you call to Me: "Lord, be with me!", then the miracles happens and I shall be with you and you will have peace and the strength that overcomes everything, that brings salvation and blessing and all that is good.

I once said that you should do holy works of love and you believe that you are already doing them. Your works, however, are still of a very human nature. I meant something much higher than you have so far been able to comprehend! Only that soul is truly in My presence that does not allow itself to be deceived by its self-pride, but confesses: "Lord, I still am a useless servant before You, for I myself have achieved nothing. And if I ever did something that was pleasing to You, then it was You, oh Lord, who did it within me!"

You shall recognise that your smallness before Me actually constitutes your greatness. The smaller you become before Me, the greater I shall appear in your life - the more I am present in it. If you could recognise how those live who are fully in My presence, then you would say, "Lord, those who dwell within You have no longer a will of their own, nor have they a love out of themselves, but full of You."

You shall understand that the extent of My presence within you will decide the state of your bliss and how close you can be to Me. Your state of purity will decide to what you will be able to experience and bear My presence, and be aware of it in your life.

You still believe that you have to ask Me for My graces, but what are My graces compared with My Myself!?" Do implore Me to come to you, then you have more than all My graces taken together! You then have your God, Father, and Creator with you - Who is more than any created being can ever conceive.

There shall be many among you who will love Me so much that nothing else will be dwelling in their heart but I and My love. When I dwell within them to such an extent, then heaven will descend to them and I shall mightily reveal Myself in their proximity as a wondrous power.

If you possessed a truly hallowed love, then I, your holiest Father would be close to you in all My abundance and would pour so much grace over you and the earth that you would realise: that just as I, the Lord, dwelt as a spirit among My children in ancient times, I again dwell among you and perform the same miracles as then.

You have to mature to a hallowed love for then I can be present in My holy love, my highest conceivable revelation. Then I am able to be among you as the One who calls Himself "The One who shall return". My second coming will take place in such a way that man matures to hallowed love, carries Me within him and is able to see Me; that he carries Me within him as his strength enabling him to accomplish everything in My name.

To those in whom I am present in great magnificence, nothing is impossible through My power.

I make this your foremost duty: Implore Me for My presence.

Then My children, you have accomplished the greatest supplication, you have asked for the supreme and you have gained the supreme - ME - the very essence of all that represents value, beatitude and bliss.

Grow in that spirit and in your yearning for Me, and you will realise that in My presence nothing is impossible for you. In My presence My angels will serve you visibly, and even hell will obey and serve you.

AMEN.

THE RIGHT WAY TO TREAT YOUR ENEMIES

When you look into your past you will remember some nasty and dreadful experiences. Some of the people in your life you did not approach with love, but with fear and judgement.

What is it that used to, or still does, separate you? It was your own weakness as well as that of the other person. If you had not been weak yourselves, nothing could have happened to you. All of you are weak children and if you had at all times prayed, I would have saved you from such trials.

I see behind all things, and everything that is happening has a meaning. I have to allow some things to happen because I did not see any other way for your betterment.

When you judge people you create a burden for your soul.

A large part of all sicknesses is the result of unredeemed problems of the past.

Your soul and consequently also your body cannot be well if you still feel hatred for someone instead of love.

The more sensitive a person is the more the unsolved problems will reflect on his soul and body.

Bring such unsolved problems to Me and say, "Lord, I want to end this discord. I will bring to You all the suffering I have borne seemingly unjustified, Lord, I want to sacrifice it to You. I will no longer carry it in bitterness and pain. And if I was without fault, then I will have carried it gladly out of love for You, and I will not bear the guilty ones any grudges!"

You see, if all of you had suffered unjustly, but had borne it out of love for Me and forgiven your enemies, you would have achieved the greatest work of My love in your life.

You will in future have more enemies; how are you going to treat them? The materialistic people will attack you because they are so full of fear. Learn to see behind them, the darkness within them. Love the ones that are caught by the darkness! Pray for them! Accept them as your brothers! The spirit that possesses them, however, give into My hands to judge.

What happens if you judge people who are possessed by the evil spirit? You sin against Me, for you sin against children of God who are merely possessed by it for My sake and bring to Me their evil deeds as a sacrifice and say: Heal - which did this within you - I pass on to My Lord for Him to judge. Never judge people - Let Me judge the evil which is the cause of all bad. You will be tested to the last and tried by people! But if someone insults you, come to Me and say, "Lord, the darkness has blinded this person, order it to disappear! I will love this human being for he is also Your child. I will love my enemies, so that You can conquer the actual enemy of life within them."

If you act like this you will win all your enemies for friends and assist Me to drive the enemy of life out of all those whom you call children of God.

You would be shocked if you knew how much influence My enemy has gained in some of My children. Do not judge them, however, love them as My true children, for they do not know what they are doing.

The only medicine for the worldly is suffering through My love, for when the children of darkness become filled with My love, their conscience will bother them and through their suffering the darkness will suffer, too. What will it do in its pain? It will call to Me, "Lord, forgive!" - and that will be its conversion.

The powers of darkness have also been given a free will, but if this is used against My divine order, it can be taken away from them for a time because they are no longer worthy of My grace, have therefor to suffer and through this become converted.

You as My children, full of My love, play an important part in how soon all the souls come to Me. Why? You are allowed to pass on My grace to them. Ahead of time and without asking the darkness first you can guide the souls to Me for purification already now thus saving them an immensely long way of error.

Bless all the suffering that comes to the children of darkness, for it represents My concealed love. Also bless the suffering which will come over the earth, for it will bring more souls much quicker to me than all good talk of many centuries.

Suffering will draw what love can no longer reach!

AMEN.

8th October 1969.

JESUS, BE ACTIVE WITHIN ME FOR THE GOOD OF ALL BEINGS!

You have put the question: "Jesus, can You hear us when we are together and discuss things which concern You?"

I assure you, since you are My children I see everything you do, for I watch over you with loving eyes. You cannot imagine how much I love you, supervising you like an ever caring mother with plenty of good advice so that your path may be blessed.

How is it possible for Me to watch over you at all times? You see, you are to Me like cells of My body and as such one with Me in the same way as the cells of your body are connected with your heart. I watch over all of you and give you at all times that which you are in need of. You are one with Me spiritually, and whatever you try to do is impossible to achieve without My help.

If a very young child comes to Me and says, "Dear Father, please help me and my parents and all people!" - then I say to such a child, "Since you have a true love for your parents and all people and honestly wish that they be well, I cannot silently stand by, but have to serve this love, for it is a love for all beings. What you request of Me shall be given to you for everybody."

What kind of love have you for your fellowmen? You still say, "Father, let my will be done", but you should say, "Father, not what I want, but what you want shall happen to all of us."

What do I want you to wish for? That you desire to have Me, your Father, close to you and say, "Father, I want only one thing - that You are our bond, our joy and our bliss. I am not seeking people as such, but You, that You may bless all of us and remain our joy always."

You think that you have nothing to do with the people you meet in the streets, but I tell you: My will be done here, too! I want to associate you with every brother and sister; I want to make you mediators between Me and creation. It shall be your mission to serve Me in every human; You shall bring everyone to Me!

Whenever you meet a person, place Me between him and yourself and ask, "Lord, what do you want me to do for this brother in Your name?" If you are in that state of receptivity before Me, then I will put everything into your heart, for your readiness to serve unselfishly makes you properly receptive for My direct revelations. You shall never face another person without Me at your side, or you would see him naked and full of sin. Do not try to accomplish anything without Me!

Whenever you have to accomplish something, be sure to say, "Jesus, do be with me!"

What caused all the strife among men? - Whatever they do, they do it without Me. Even worse - they work together with the enemy of My light. They call him through their evil disposition, and he is with them. But if I am with you, I pour out a power over you which shackles and weakens the darkness.

If you have my kind of love for each other, then you are one with Me, I am with you and shall remain so forever. Then the Kingdom of Heaven, the only true kingdom, has come to this earth. Do not expect a Kingdom of Heaven in the beyond! I shall come to you, and with Me, My Kingdom.

When you have to face difficult tasks, do not say they disturb your peace. Take Me with you on all your errands, even if they should be quite unspiritual; If I am with you, I hallow everything. Nothing shall be too insignificant to you, for I make everything perfect.

If a mother is disgruntled at the routine of her daily chores and says: "I always have to do this menial work; I would like to do greater things for You, oh Lord!" - then

I say, "If you do everything with Me, if I can be with you, then it is I who does what you are doing, and together we prepare a wonderful meal for your loved ones which will be an eternal blessing for them." If I am with you everything becomes a divine service.

If you went into the street to the lowest of all people, but I walked with you, you would be in My temple, in My Kingdom. You would bring everybody on whom you call together with Me, close to My heart; for where I go to people with you, the Kingdom of God is close to them. If you know a person who has fallen low through his selfishness, ask Me to accompany you to him. He will behold Me, and the enemy will let go his soul, for if I come with you to such a soul, it will be liberated. Wherever there is a loving heart, there I shall be and accompany it everywhere. Thus I possess living and walking temples wherein I dwell in all glory. Within these temples I am able to descend into the most profound depths to bring them My light.

When people ask you questions, do not answer them according to your own comprehension, but say: "Jesus, I want to serve you in these people, I do not want to preach to them my own knowledge, but Yours, Lord, reveal to me Your truth that I may pass it on. I will preach only Your truth to people, for this sets all hearts free."

He who opens his heart to Me and passes on My truth, is a thousand times closer to Me than one who has studied a lot of truths. Its own knowledge does not benefit the souls, only the truth I put into its heart. Only he is a true preacher before Me who says: "I know nothing out of myself, you children of God. I will not talk until the Lord anoints my mouth and I am able to pass on to you what He, God, has in mind for you."

All the preachers who preach out of their own wisdom, are in many ways My adversaries. Why? They present something as My truth which is, in fact, not My truth. They lead men in a roundabout way instead of saying: "Lord, teach through me all the people for whom I am responsible!"

And truly, one word that I speak through you will bring more blessing than a thousand times a thousand of your words; for yours will bring discord whereas My Word will unite all hearts, be they friends or enemies. My Word is the bridge to all hearts. If you cannot yet live in peace with your brothers and sisters, then this only proves that you are still sticking to your truth and are not yet standing up fully for My truth. My truth unites all hearts, even if the unbelieving person does not yet want to understand it completely or live according to it. If you pass My truth on to an unbeliever through My mouth, he must accept it even if outwardly he still resists it. My truth enlightens every heart and will remain awake as the conscience.

If you tell the very lowest of beings of My truth in My spirit, then it will understand it, although it may not comply with it. The adversary knows the truth but disregards it. If you bring people My truth and they do not live according to it, you are not responsible. It is your responsibility to acquaint them with it and then I Myself shall take care of the germination of the seed. The crown of thorns to Me is the fact that people do not teach their inferiors My truth, but tell them things My heart dislikes.

With one word people would be told everything: "Love God within Christ! Then you live within Christ and Christ within you. Then Christ is your life."

Everything else that is being taught is at the best an explanation of this sole eternal truth which I gave you as the foundation of My doctrine.

Whatever men are being taught apart from this teaching are for the greater part roundabout or wrong ways which do not lead them to eternal salvation. Why? Because a man guides only in a human way; he shapes others according to himself. Men are weak and create more weakness in others. However, if I teach people in My divine way, then I strengthen the divine within them. I make them divine and that is their redemption.

If you serve Me and allow Me to be active within you only for a second, then this is more than you can achieve in a year of your own searching and striving. You should say: "Jesus, be active within me for the benefit of all beings - that they all may be blessed through You!"

This shall be your task forever and ever!

AMEN.

YOUR GOOD WILL DRAWS ME TO YOU!

At all times people have asked Me this question: "Lord, You strong God, where is Your might that it may fight for us?"

And I answered, "Why is the darkness on this earth so mighty?" Because men believe more in the darkness than in Me. If they trusted Me with all their heart, there would be only My power, My grace, My heavenly kingdom on earth.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BELIEVE THE WORLD, THE EVIL?

I, the Father of Light, am the giver of all good things. I alone am the might One. There is nothing that could resist Me in the long run, for in My omnipotence I am the victor. The powers of darkness are trying to fight Me, but the effect is no greater than when naughty children oppose their parents. And the naughty children will not escape their punishment, a punishment out of love. I am the Father also of the naughty children, of those who have strayed, and I will teach them. You have more faith in those naughty children than in Me, the Father of all that is! Think of all the time you devote to those who enslave the world! And how little time and love you give Me, the Lord of Eternity!

I am not treasured in your life as much as I ought to be. You treat Me like a servant when I should be your Master. You treat Me as one who lives a long distance away, when I want to be close to you, indeed, dwell within you as your greatest treasure. You treat Me like one who is poor forgetting completely that I am the one who owns everything.

There are people who do believe in Me, but there are only few whose faith is strong enough to let them say: "God, My Lord, I know that I could not be anything that is not held, shaped and moved in its being by You according to Your will."

You say that the world is no longer in order, but I say to you that I allow the world scope to unfold their free will. Eventually they are going to obey My holy will, for not yet have I spoken the great "Let there be!" I am still saying: "Make your decision!" One day I shall say, "Let there be!" - and then My will shall be done irrevocably and everybody shall receive what he has brought upon himself.

Many times you ask: "Father, why don't You intervene against the injustice of this world?"

In fact, I do intervene, but you do not notice it since I do not use force, only guidance. You expect Me to use force and slay your enemies. Would I then still be a God of love? I am a loving Father also to My naughty children.

I shall not intervene forcefully until the time when all My love has been poured over mankind; after that My will shall be done irrevocably.

Those who stray I shall teach what is right through their conscience. More and more I shall put the right notions into their heart so that they are no longer in doubt. If they still continue to act against their better judgement - that is, against Me, then I will say: "Leave Me Satan! You are unworthy to drink of My grace. May you fare according to your evil will and receive your judgement. It is not I that judge you, but your own will!"

You ask: "Lord, do give more strength to Your children to protect them from the attacks of the darkness!"

Parents have big and small children. The little ones are given at first small tasks according to their capabilities. The older ones will - according to their age and maturity - be given greater responsibilities and duties.

I have spiritually big and little children. The little ones should let themselves be guided to prevent them falling. Most of their troubles are caused by the fact that many of My children are too self-assured, walk without protection and stray from the right path. Whenever My immature children do something without Me, they will bring suffering upon themselves. My mature children no longer even try to achieve anything without Me, for I became resurrected within them as their life and will.

Without Me no being is able to:

1. Do something good.
2. Possess anything of eternal value.
3. Be protected from the darkness.
4. Have in My Name, power over the elements for My victory and My glory.

AMEN.

ABOUT DIVINE COMFORT

Everything you need to live a blessed life you can only receive through My grace. Therefore, you should ask:

“Jesus, Lord of heaven and earth, give us of the abundance of Your grace.”

And I will give it to you. Free yourselves from all sense of haste by constantly looking towards Me, saying:

"Jesus, You are the only constant and lasting factor in life; my sole desire is to possess You as my treasure!"

So be it.

Why do you still look at what others are doing? Look into your own heart and test it to see in how far it resembles My heart! Then ask:

"Jesus, Your heart is the sun of all heavens, give it to me!"

Take it.

Do not cling to what is transient! It will pass like a breath! Strive for the eternal! Request it of Me:

"Father of Eternity, allow me to work in Your vineyard that I may become worthy of being an heir to Your Kingdom!"

Do not idolise alien gods! Do not adore them as the masses do! Hold fast unto Me and say:

"Jesus is the corner stone, He alone is the Lord; His is the earth and all that is below and above it!"

Obey those who are your superiors as long as your conscience permits it! Give to the emperor what is the emperor's and to Me what is Mine. Say:

"Jesus, I serve You in everything I do."

Work for your daily bread honestly!

Do not ever hate, for hate kills both bodily and spiritually. Love those who hate you! Bless them that curse you and pray for those who persecute you! Forgive all, whether they be repentant or not; then you will be worthy of My grace.

Do not force your own views onto others, for everyone believes according to his understanding! Advise, but leave to them the freedom of choice! Also to you applies the word:

"Jesus is the sole truth, and those who love Him are in the truth."

All the knowledge about the transient things of the world does not give much peace to the soul. Only those find peace who discover Me and say:

"Jesus, You are all things to me and will give me everything."

Turn away from hustle and bustle of life and seek solitude; for it is in the stillness that your heart - your spontaneous love - will open up. Then give it to Me completely:

"Jesus, my soul is pure love, but you are divine love - take me."

Watch your tongue, for it may harm you and many others more than you imagine. Be My mouthpiece and proclaim:

"Jesus is our life. Jesus loves you; do love Him, your eternal life!"

Endure with patience what the mighty of the world may do to you. Since you are My children, I will endure with you. To you the word applies:

"Jesus loves and suffers within me. Jesus redeems and heals through me."

In all distress stick to this one word - "JESUS"

Do not ever forget it, for it is the word of all salvation.
All who call to Me in this name will attain beatitude.

That is how it was, how it is and will be in eternity.

AMEN.

JESUS, YOU HELP ALL BEINGS

Do not be indifferent to your fellowmen! I want you to love him in the same way as yourself.

Do not be indifferent to the suffering of humanity! I want you to help them in My name.

Do not be indifferent to the pains of the dumb creatures! You shall care for all of them.

Serve Me through all beings by asking:

"Jesus, make me responsive to the needs of others, so that I can care for them with prayer, advice and good deeds. Jesus, all beings are my sisters and brothers for You are the Father of all of us. If a limb of our body suffers, then the whole body is in pain. If one being is suffering then all beings suffer, for everything is through Your love and together with You - one body. My fellowman is a part of the great cosmic man the same as I and all created beings. Everything affects everybody; If one gets help all do. Nobody lives for himself alone, all are united. If one is given assistance, then it is received by all; then You, oh God, have been helped in Your plan. Jesus, if I help You through helping parts of Your body, then You and all of creation have been served. Whatever we do to the lowest of Your brothers we have done to You. Jesus, I want to serve You and all beings, without exception."

IMPLORE ME:

1. Jesus, You love all beings be they good or bad. Pour the stream of Your light mercifully into all hearts that they may all be enlightened, recognise You, love and serve You.
2. Jesus, accept all beings once more as Your own, even if many do not want this. One day they will all love you. Accept their future love already today for the deed.
3. Jesus, You gladly forgive all beings once they repent and wish to walk Your paths. Although many hearts are still hard and evil as a result of presumption. Forgive all of them for they do not know what they are doing.
4. Jesus, You have prepared a path for every being, even for those who do not want to walk it. Draw all of them to You, be it in joy or misery, for with You they will all find peace.
5. Jesus, You gladly give Your grace to all beings, even if they forget to ask You for it or disregard its worth. Lord, give them the treasure of Your graces for without them no being can gain beatitude.
6. Jesus, You want to teach all beings, even if they have deaf ears for Your word. Teach them in every possible way. For all of them have to be taught by You. Only this way will they find You - the true goal.
7. Jesus, You like to heal all wounds. Heal them, even if they were caused through someone's own fault. For You repair what we have damaged. Apart from You there is no other physician for us.

8. Jesus, You like to guard all beings from the temptations of disobedience against Your command, for You know that only with Your help we are able to live without sin. Your assistance alone makes us strong.

9. Jesus, You like to share Your riches with all beings, even if these beings are lacking love. You make the poor rich, feed the hungry and make the lost ones Your children. Where there is hunger for the Kingdom of God You give Your abundance.

10. Jesus, You like to be close to Your created beings, even if they do not perceive this. You are the sun that matures and perfects everything. Be close to everything - then it is close to perfection!

11. Jesus, You like to reveal Yourself to every being that desires You with all its heart. Reveal Yourself to the erring, that they may see their salvation. Reveal Yourself to the lost and they will have found their way. Reveal Yourself to the deluded and they will recognise the truth!

12. Jesus, draw everything to You, be it high or low, poor or rich. All shall be with You, for You are the Saviour! Make that all paths may ultimately lead to You. Direct all powers that they may bear witness of You! Fill everything with Your Spirit that it may all be full of You!

In this way you shall pray to Me, so that all may be helped. - I through all and all through My help!

AMEN.

CAN SINS BE FORGIVEN?

Yes, according to the degree of your conversion. Those whose will is evil can only be forgiven when they repent and change their will to a better and obedient one. Those, however, who are of good will, but fall into sin, can easily be forgiven. He who changed his will and now seeks only the good, will be forgiven all that he did wrong while his will was bad.

IS THERE AN EVERLASTING LIFE?

Your flesh disintegrates, for it is but a garment for the soul. The flesh is taken from the kingdom of nature and becomes spiritualised through the right kind of conduit. It is bound energy; the carrier of the soul on earth meant to help it attain a state of godliness through tests of its free will. Man's soul originates in the spiritual world and its goal is the Kingdom of Heaven.

My Divine Spirit was implanted in the soul and gave it the free will, free reason and a free activity of love.

Through the resurrection of My Spirit within the soul, this becomes at one with Me and is raised to a divine state of being a creature.

Your flesh is comparable to the dumb creature, your soul to the angel of the world of light. Through My being born into your immortal soul, My spirit keeps growing within you. Through leading a life of materialism a soul can lose its spirituality and enter the natural world, which may be compared to the fall from heaven (spirit) into hell

(a state of nature). The human soul can become so dark that it takes on the semblance of an animal and lives only in the kingdom of nature. Such a soul has lost its spiritual nature and lives among the lowest fallen being in nature.

A being never ceases to exist, it only changes. Also the lowest fallen beings continue to exist after their death, although in a miserable state. The life of the beings is indestructible, it can only become dark or enlightened. Also the materialist lives on eternally; however, according to his inner condition - in misery.

The spiritual man (or woman) loyal to Me, is accepted according to his inner purity into spiritual worlds and richly blessed in eternity, whereas the evil will reap only evil. All of you will live forever; the ones in self-created judgement, the others close to My divine being in the abundance of My heart's graces. You will not escape eternity. Therefore, make good use of your time to gain that which will give you eternal salvation.

WHO IS JESUS CHRIST?

God became a human being in Jesus. Bodily, He was the son of man, by His soul - as the love within the Deity - He was the Son of God. But in His spirit, Jesus - as the love of the Deity - represents the very centre of God in its divine fullness.

My garment was "human"; My soul as the love of God "divine". My spirit is the primal Deity itself, concealed within Me as Jesus.

My flesh was as wretched as yours. It prayed to the Deity, the Father within Me. My flesh was your "human element" within Me. Yearning for salvation when it uttered the words: "My God, My God, why hast thou forsaken me?"

My flesh was not divine, it was of your flesh, but it became glorified just as your flesh will become spiritualised and glorified.

My soul was that part of the Deity which in its humbleness had mercy upon you and sacrificed everything, that you might live.

The love of My heart created itself a body in "Jesus of Nazareth" and accomplished the work of redemption with My earthly body so that it became the seat of the Deity and thus "God walked among you." In the flesh I suffered agonies for your sake. I suffered as a man in the flesh and as God in the spirit. My flesh, which was a piece of you, prayed in its death agony. It prayed for liberation from the state of God-forsakenness, for resurrection in the spirit.

You, My children, are My flesh, within you I keep struggling for the redemption of My creation.

As Jesus I, your Creator, became a man so as to dwell not only in heaven, but also on earth in order to establish My eternal Kingdom of Peace.

AMEN

WHO AM I - YOUR GOD?

I am the life that animates everything: the rock, the flower, the animal, man, the angel, the divine child. I dwell as their life within My created beings; without Me you would not have life. The life I give to you is My love which I allow to flow over everything, although the rock, for instance, does not sense My being as yet.

I give life to the flower and it blooms brightly. I animate the dumb creature and it walks its path without knowing of My mercy.

I shower man with the fire of My divine love. Hoping that he will recognise Me with joy and see the eagerness of My love.

Man shall understand Me and teach My truth to all created beings. He shall kindle within his own heart the love which I give him and say: "God burns also within me. Out of this love He gives life to all who come to Him."

I am waiting for man to recognise Me through awakening My being within himself in all infinity and abundance of light and to reveal Me as the carrier of My Deity.

AMEN.

ALL OF YOU SHALL SERVE ME AS MINISTERS.

Some of My children have asked Me: "Dear Father, can we serve You as ministers without being ordained?"

To be a minister means to be a warden or guard for My parish; to look after a group in a fatherly way.

If you are the head of a family, look after them in My spirit and guide them to Me, then you are ministers for your loved ones.

If you have many sisters and brothers to care for in My spirit and show them the path to the light, then you are ministers for this group of people.

I set you over many people as shepherds and guides, and therefor you are ministers for My parish, strengthened by My Holy Ghost.

Furthermore you want to know: "Father, can also women have a calling as ministers?"

If a woman out of inner purity and maturity is able to be a guide into My light, be it in the family, in a circle of friends or in the parishes, then I will also give her the office of minister, for it is the heart that is important and not whether you are male or female.

First of all, male and female ministers have to be educated, guided and advised by Me alone on how to convey My will to their flock and support them actively in every possible way. They shall not be as masters over My children, but as servants or fathers and mothers for everyone.

To be a minister means to be My servant, to be carried by My spirit and let this become powerful, so that I Myself can work through him in My parish.

To be a minister is an office which creates responsibilities for other souls, and such a minister has to become absorbed in My service for the parish.

To be a minister means also to be My messenger, someone to whom I give My revelations to be proclaimed, thereby drawing the hearts to Me.

The attitude of a minister should be as follows:

"Jesus, let me know Your will! I want to help You realise it in the lives of all those souls whom You have given into my care, to be a shepherd, healer and father to them!"

My ministers' prayers on behalf of their flock make them mediators of My grace. To be ministers is the true vocation of all children of God, for I have put you into the world as torches that My light within you may bring peace to all.

AMEN.

THE REDEMPTION OF SEXUALITY

'There is a question deeply stirring some of you, and it concerns sexual relationships. I will, therefore give you enlightenment on this subject.

I assure you, sex for its own sake is a bad substitute for perfect love.

A pure love kindles first of all in Me. If a being loves Me from the depth of its heart, then it has a joy which compares to all pleasures of their flesh as if they no longer existed. A being that loves Me truly, becomes happy, joyful, enraptured.

The yearning for this joy exists in all human beings as a driving force. It is a yearning for Me, even though a person may not be fully aware of it. Much sexual trouble stems from the error that people, seeking to satisfy a true need for happiness, unfortunately do not seek it in Me, and therefor their yearning is like a consuming fire.

When a child of Mine comes to love Me, there awakens within him a holy, redeeming and healing fire that burns all the slag.

When humans are attracted only to each other sexually, however, it is like the burning up of a holy power.

You know, once a food is burnt, it is unpalatable.

Sexuality for its own sake is like a scorching fire; you could call it a piece of perdition, whereas the love for Me is salvation, rescue, comfort and exaltation.

You have now been given true knowledge about salvation from sexuality and what men have made of true love of God; pleasure in something which itself is fallen.

You shall have no idols; you shall love Me with all your heart and I will hallow you.

I assure you: those who love Me from their innermost being, with all their heart, will have no further need of sex; they will have overcome it, be free from it and have only one fire: The redeeming, hallowing fire which is like to My Holy Ghost. As you are aware, the world in which you are living is being stirred by that fire which comes from the flesh and is in many ways still animalistic. It is the fire that cannot yet redeem, but keeps degrading.

There is no other redemption from sexuality than to raise the love between human beings to Me; there is no other refinement or ennoblement of sex.

I will give you an example: How can you ever obtain a bright flame from an oil that is thick and tough? First you have to purify your love, your oil, that it can burn brightly. Such purification takes place when you lift your hearts to Me. Then holy spirit, holy love will fill you, which is alone able to give you bliss.

'This kind of love I demand of you; I make it your duty to achieve.

AMEN.

HOW THE SPIRITUAL BEINGS LIVE IN MY HEAVENS

I am the sun of all life and the angels circle around Me like stars; some - spiritually seen - closer and some farther away and although the earth is far away it also rotates around Me. This earth is in the outermost mantle of creation and anything that is farther removed I call utter darkness. I will compare the earth with the peel of an apple; in the spiritual sense it is the outer skin of creation, the outermost mark which I want to draw close to Me and unite all creation in the core within Me.

HOW CAN I DRAW THE COURSE OF THE STARS, SPIRITUALLY SEEN, CLOSER AND CLOSER TO ME
FOR THEM TO BE WITHIN ME - THE SUN - MORE AND MORE?

I beam My love into all worlds and more light is accepted and contained within a being or a world the closer it is to My heart.

WHY IS THE EARTH THE OUTERMOST LAYER OF CREATION?

Because the core of darkness is bound into this earth; it contains the deepest fallen and therefor I, the highest, became a human being in it. I came to the lost, the outcasts, bringing with Myself My light into this darkness. Everybody in it shall, through accepting My light, be drawn even closer to Me. My love is like a current, if you take from it you have the life and the one in whom this current is alive I draw heavenwards.

The hierarchies of angels are rotating around Me constantly, taking from and returning to Me. The more active an angel involves himself this way the greater is his divine bliss.

The earth globe is like the night; My light-beam can only flow into it in small quantities and the light is, therefor, dim. When the darkness, that is, the earth with its inhabitants, long for My love, My light will enter in a stronger measure. The longing for My love will result in My being among the human beings as the "light" more and more.

If your material sun did not shine, it would be night. I shine for you spiritually as the true sun and the earth will be drawn into My centre to the same degree as her beings absorb My light. You know that I love and radiate to all of you but only when you return My love you receive My love beam consciously which represents a power within, creating your life, light, salvation and strength to achieve great things.

WHY IS THE EARTH SO FAR REMOVED FROM ME?

Because there is so little light within it, because I, the light, am so little accepted by the darkness and not revealed enough among the people.

An angel is close to Me because he prepares himself for My love current and returns it to Me in great strength. What human beings do? They receive My blessings undeserved, use them in their lives and usually do not return such love to Me. The earth-globe, therefor, often resembles a black wall to which I send My light-beam which is absorbed and cannot be reflected. Yet it is said: In the same way as you are loved by Me you shall return that love for that is your gain and bliss.

WHY DO SO FEW HUMANS IN YOUR TIME RECEIVE SO LITTLE OF MY LIGHT?

I have said that the core of darkness is hidden in this planet and the highest most sublime, became revealed in it. The dark is that which appeals to the physical sense; humans love what presents itself to them in outward beauty.

I am within and My treasures are also within, they are of a spiritual nature. Since men are looking for their treasures in the first place in the material world, they are unable to receive My love and, therefor, few blessings from the spiritual realm. Look at black dirt; it will absorb the light without reflecting it and is lifeless.

All of you are mirrors to Me; are you dark mirrors or are you crystal mirrors who return everything to Me that you have received? If you return only five percent you are already spiritually enlightened. If you returned My love in its fullness your enlightenment would be so much higher.

WHY ARE MOST HUMAN BEINGS OF THIS EARTH LIKE A DARK MIRROR?

Men of your time have forgotten Me for the greater part. They believe that their vitality and health originate from some blind power. They are not aware of Me any more as the giver of all good and believe not to owe Me any thanks, and therefor, My measure of grace cannot become greater at first.

Imagine that a person receives My grace and thanks Me; he uses it in My service and returns My graces through his services manifold. I accept this and say: "You have served Me well in a small thing, I will give you a greater task." I will then increase his strength and when he fulfils his task as well I say: "See, I have put you in charge of a great undertaking and I will now give you an even greater one." You are like a mirror that reflects My graces with great intensity.

This earth resembles a large field of mirrors. The single souls who are thanking Me are mirrors who reflect the light to Me and throw at the same time light over the entire earth. If you placed mirrors around the whole earth, it would soon shine like a sun. If there were people throughout the whole world returning My love it would truly radiate in its entirety. I say to you: "Only what you can return to Me is your own!"

The angels reflect to Me everything that I gave to them but usually without adding their own contribution. You, however, shall be living mirrors of My love! How shall that be done? You can absorb the light of My love and make use of it wherever you see the need - for My love current is a power with which you can truly rule everything in the world for are you not able to use your earthly electric power too to drive machines, create fire and even send vehicles with great speed into space? The time will come for My current to give you unthought of possibilities: it is a force coming to you from the cosmos. Your motors of the future will be storehouses of cosmic energy. You will have unlimited pollution free power resources.

I am the spiritual sun of life. I will irradiate you constantly if you are good mirrors to Me; such a mirror, which reflects light well, will become warm itself, be bright and contain the current of life.

DO YOU KNOW HOW A REFLECTION DEVELOPS?

A mirror absorbs light, becomes warm and throws light back to Me in great love. Black dirt absorbs light also, retains it, does not thank Me and remains dark and unreceptive for higher graces.

See, your heart is the mirror for Me and My love. With the same force as My light touches you, your love - which is also out of Me - will emanate from you and you will be able to direct that power current anywhere as transmitters.

Imagine a community of men whose hearts are all good mirrors and who absorb the light of My heart and reflect it in multiple strength into infinity. Such a community would resemble a sun mirror (for your sun is a mirror also reflecting the light from My central sun). Communities like that are powerful reflectors. They receive My love and, because they love Me, My light radiates through them. Angels love Me in another way. My love touches them and they pass it on, often neither lessened nor strengthened. You however, since you love Me, accept My love, find it immensely precious, add your own love, which is also out of Me, and strengthen this way My current and I can say: "Your heart is like fertile soil which strengthened My love." With one light-beam of My love you can do many good works and, therefor, bring Me a good harvest.

Imagine that I give you a light-beam which you use not for yourselves but for Me. You would return more to Me than what I gave to you in the first place for you add your own. Within your heart you are like a lens, which strengthens and glorifies the current of My heart. You can direct My love current anywhere, even into solid matter. As you know, every metal, and even the hardest diamond, can be melted with heat. Wherever you direct this intensified love you will discover that matter is released from the old bonds. This current of My heart is the power with which you are able to melt iron and rocks, that is, free spirits of matter from their old judgement. You will be able to interfere with the laws of nature for it is the creative spirit and when it flows from you it is the same force which once created the universe. You will see, creations will once more come into being through this current wherever you mirror My Father-love.

If you would radiate My light-beam into the darkness "night" would become "day", plants of the night would become plants of the day, would live by the sun and reflect its light. All former night-life would become day-life, be in My presence and My grace. You will always see miracles happen when you direct My current somewhere.

A clear mirror will receive a lot of light, a dull one only little; a large one will catch more light than a small one. So you see, to the same degree that your love for Me is strong and pure you will reflect My light for your love for Me is a chalice or a mirror.

You could say: "LORD, WE WANT TO RECEIVE YOUR LOVE IN ITS FULLNESS, WHAT CAN WE DO?"

Today your love resembles a small cup for you look to Me hopefully; see, a mirror out of frosted glass is not a true mirror. You have to be like a clear, crystal glass; that means your love for Me must not be governed by your reasoning, but allowed to be carried and guided by My love into the true love for Me. You are then no longer masters of your love and I say: "Look My child, I love you infinitely, without measure - be prepared also for such a love and I will kindle My love within you!" This will then draw a never ending light-beam out of My primeval Father-sun. When this touches your heart you will be truly charged by the Holy Spirit and when this ray breaks out of you, it will be as it was once for Moses; you will direct it to a rock and water will gush out, the ocean will part for you, you will become invisible to some of your enemies and others will hide from you because they see only a great light which threatens to burn them.

As you know, some of My angels are endowed with omnipotence. How is this possible? They are large reflectors of My love. When they see wrong being done they send My light, My Holy Spirit, there and it drives away and de-powers all the dark forces. As you know, the last fight of this earth will be fought by the two great light reflectors Michael and Gabriel. They would have enough light already to illuminate or burn out the darkness. Would they not harm you as well though at this stage with their powerful light, since you cannot bear it yourselves yet? Would not many men, still in the darkness, burn internally?

I do not yet allow My power current to come to this earth in its fullness, because many whom I have called are still in darkness and would be judged through it since it is a "fire" for those who are not within the light of the heavens. It will come to pass, that I will teach a team of My children to become true light transformers. They will at first emit a gentle glow and after they have achieved a nice dawn light in all localities of the earth and when the majority of men become mirrors of My grace the full power of My salvation will come and will burn out the black marks, the so called "devil" mirrors. What is a devil? A mirror of the evil spirit, reflecting what is created in the evil hierarchies. You know that the black rays endanger the earth - the atom and the atomic power- and penetrate even walls.

I have given you the heavenly light-rays with which you can irradiate the black mirrors and destroy their black rays.

WHY ARE MANY PEOPLE, MIRRORS OF THE BLACK TYPE AND WHY DO THEY REFLECT THE DARK POWERS?

Because they love what I call hell and what is, in fact, godlessness. Those godless men reflect the dark rays and I assure you: If you are not in the light, you can be harmd very much by them; they contact the flesh and not the soul whereas you - reflecting the light of the heavens - touch the soul, the human spirit, and will be able to transform even the physical body, for My creative spirit is the all permeating spirit of life.

WHY WAS THE DARKNESS ABLE TO IMBUE THIS EARTH WITH SO MUCH POWER?

Because most people became reflectors for it. I will tell you a secret; when you transmit the heavenly light into a black mirror you will discover that it seems to disappear. However, this light is of a kind that burns off the soot (the love of the world) of such a mirror and transforms it again into a crystal-like light mirror.

Beam onto the hearts who are like black mirrors and you will see that My light will remove the stain and they will reflect Me and become carriers of My divine power.

As long as a person loves evil he is a carrier of the dark powers and reflects hellish rays. Many people are not aware of carrying a hellish light (love of matter) and they spread and multiply it. They believe to be within My light but since they love the world and the negative they are of the opposition. Test the spirits to see whether they love Me or evil and you will know whose light they reflect and multiply!

WHAT CAN YOU DO WITH A PERSON WHO LOVES EVIL?

Some human beings turn their mirrors away from Me towards the ground and the heavenly light, which comes from above, cannot touch them. You can, however, radiate your light from a lower level and beam My light at them from all sides for you are reflectors of it. Most men do not look towards Me, towards heaven any more, they look to the world and into it. I have placed you there and you are able to guide My light from that level into the black mirrors. Then the true light will become reflected within them and they will realise whose mirrors they are supposed to be according to their calling.

WHY IS THE EARTH, SPIRITUALLY SEEN, THE OUTERMOST BORDER OF CREATION?

The earth was once hurled into space after the fall of Lucifer and carries the lowest fallen. It is now time that through the involvement of the children of this earth the outermost becomes drawn to the innermost - My heart - and the distance from the outermost layer of creation to Me - the innermost core - becomes smaller and smaller; the heavens will discharge themselves into Me ever more and the deepest fallen will be drawn heavenwards.

If many men reflected My light in its fullness, this earth would rise (spiritually) with the most evil in her midst and this way even the dragon would be raised to heaven. You see, he has not yet understood that this is My victory, for the earth is a prison for the darkness. If My children are full of light they will carry the earth - even the dragon - as on their hands to heaven. I have told you before that this planet will become a sun when all her beings have absorbed My light and reflect it intensified into infinity. It will occupy an important position in My realm because the highest calling is hidden within the lowest fallen.

When I will have drawn the globe to the light I will have uprooted the darkness in its entirety, for with the heart of the darkness - this earth - the whole body will follow and the dragon returns to Me. If the heart is light, the whole being is light and if the heart of the darkness is light the darkness itself becomes illuminated. Once you - the heart of the earth - are truly full of My light, I can illuminate the black heart which is bound within this planet. I say to you: "Your hearts, carrying the light, will bring the darkness into the light. The dragon is a dragon only because he still receives My blessings which he returns as poisons. If you expose that spirit to My rays and My light burns out of him his conscience will nag him immensely. This I permit because it is his judgement. It will happen that these great pains will tear many children from the old dragon and he will set free many parts of his heart as children, as parts of creation.

I WILL NOW TELL YOU HOW TO LEARN TO LOVE ME.

There was a time when you desired that your health and well being should be sound and your love and care was concentrated only on yourselves. You wanted your small salvation in the eternal sense; later on you cared for a family, a community, a town, a country, the earth.

Men love Me usually for selfish reasons; they will say for instance: "Dear God, I love you, I need this or that from You". Such a love is indirect and bound. You shall love Me because I long for you and want to unite with you again and not because you need My gifts. You all are My torn-off limbs and I am suffering knowing you have not yet returned and are often in darkness.

Love Me because you want to comfort My heart! You are then transparent like a crystal and your great love can reflect Me in such purity that I can say: "See, you love Me for Myself and receive therefor My primeval, divine love untainted, unspoiled and holy". When you burn in such love for Me, the light which will break out of you will achieve miracles. In some dark place you might find a human being and when you beam My light there no shadow and no suffering will remain.

Your earthly light bounces back from a surface but My current penetrates even the densest substances. You will have the gift of sending My light into all levels and will have power over the spirits of nature. You will be regents in My name over these parts of creation.

AMEN

ABOUT THE RAINBOW

I Am like the sun. I give My light to this and to all the other worlds. But depending on the particular atmospheres of the worlds My white light is reflected in different colours.

If the atmosphere of a world were absolutely pure, My light would reach it in pure white. But the air would then be pure white. Could you bear that?

You would say: "In this case we would go blind." Therefor I give you the light that you can bear. You say the sky is blue. This is how you see it. My light comes from the heavens and is reflected in your atmosphere, and you call it blue. However, if you could see with spiritual eyes, you would not perceive it as blue.

Thus every soul is like air. The purer it is, the brighter will be the light in which I can reveal Myself to it. If a soul is dull and dark like most, only a faint grey will shine through it as it filters to Me.

Thus I may say that a person only allows to shine through him that which dwells within him. If a person carries within him blue light - depth of cognition - then I shall shine through him in blue light. If a person perceives yellow, which is the symbol for insight, for an inner life, then I can dwell within it and give it insight into all things.

If a person is reddish, strong and impulsive, My action within him will be powerful and impulsive.

In a man whose nature is of a light green, I shall act mildly and kindly for that is the way he is.

If a person's colour is violet, his heart is full of compassion, and that is the way in which I shall manifest in him.

WHAT AM I REALLY? I AM WHITE. But where is a heart that can bear Me in My white heat and reflect Me?

It is said of Me that I am a consuming fire. I consume all that is and transform it into pure white light, into purity and divine life.

How few hearts are capable of having such a white light, My unclouded divine spirit, shine through them!

There are so many who are dark red, sowing discord, stubborn and opinionated, believing they are led by My Spirit.

So many are dark blue, have knowledge and cognition, but derive this from their intellect, not from the spirit.

Many have dark green, symbol for forbearance with themselves, but hard heartedness with others.

So many have the dark colours, symbols for self-love and hardly allow Me, the divine love to flow through them.

I am pure and forever the Same, but the worlds are varied, and so are the hearts. And where the hearts and the worlds are pure, My pure white light can shine through them.

When My light is no longer reflected and thus not reduced in its intensity - that is the kingdom of Heaven.

As the colours pass into white, they have attained divine maturity. All colours denote separation from Me; blends, isolations, everything must revert to white, to the pure light of MY love. As long as you yourselves are not white and pure, you are unable to completely reflect Me in My pure spirit.

Thus I may say that My creation is like a huge rainbow and each part of this creation reflects that of Me which it can bear and conceive.

Although you have seven colours, I am but one colour, a pure white. And this you find in the seven, above them, above all that is created, for wherever there are created beings there is distinction, the breaking up of the white light into different colours.

Therefor, do not seek what is created, seek Me alone, then you are in the white light. What good will the seven colours do if you are not in Me the pure divine light.

THE EARTH WITHIN ALL CREATION

Men allow themselves to be ruled by that which they love, and do you know what it is that most men love these days? Themselves and the worldly spirit! Fortunately there are also people who love Me, and therefor I Am also involved in the affairs of the world and Am able to support the earth. And thus I, the Father of Light, Am wrestling with the father of falsehood for the earth. We are pulling the earth back and forth - I upwards and he down. This causes the unrest of your time.

The earth is as unsteady as a drunk and its people do not really know what they are seeking - they behave as if drunk.

All those who love Me give Me power over this globe. The more you love Me the more your love can make up for the lack of love in thousands of others. And if I had one whose love would equal the fire of a thousand suns, he would counteract the lovelessness of millions, for he would have enough love for all.

You know that a fair number of people with the right love for Me would flood the earth with light and make the darkness disappear. But only love for Me can achieve this.

I am your salvation. You need Me first and foremost, then everything else will be given to you, for I am the HEAD from which all My members originated. He who loves Me loves everything within Me in a divine way and he will discover within Me also the brother and the sister, all the angels and heaven with all its treasures. Do not ever replace Me!

I tell you: To love means to love Me alone with all your heart, to concentrate all your energy on Me. Then it will come over with the intensity of fire that I alone am everything within you.

If you gave your love only to people, to created beings, then your love would be on that level; but if you give your love to Me, it becomes divine, capable of carrying Me, experiencing and beholding Me.

Once you are at one with Me, you are able to love people through Me, - blessing, healing and helping; then you are streams of the living water.

AMEN.

WHEN DOES TIME BECOME ETERNITY?

Look at a lake. When the sun shines upon its surface, steam rises and the water is thus transformed through the power of the sun.

I Am the sun of all life, and all creation is before Me like a great lake. I send My love to the souls, and all those who allow themselves to be warmed by it, rise towards My Kingdom - like steam from the water. The smooth lake can be compared to time, the state of all created existence. Through My love penetrating creation and drawing all those who are at one with My love creatures that are temporal beings are transformed into divine, eternal being.

I look upon you as droplets of water in the great sea of creation. I irradiate you, heat you until you are like steam, rising like vapour to heaven.

You know how drops of water are able to drink the light by floating as close to the surface as possible, and the more the light becomes active within the drop, the more it is heated up and becomes ethereal - akin to light - and thus rises upwards.

I love you like a sun shining upon the water. I keep irradiating and warming you, transforming you more and more thus enabling you to rise higher, and only the sunlight of My grace can do this.

Some souls are still at the bottom of the lake, in darkness, where seldom a ray of My sun can fall upon them. But as for all those who throng to the surface, strive towards My love and open themselves to it, they are warmed by My love until through its power they rise to the heights of My heaven.

How many souls might there be that are waiting to be redeemed? They are like a large lake, wide and deep. All the souls that are close to the surface receive the light and are close to redemption. The ones on the bottom however, remain in darkness, they let themselves be drawn by the night, become rigid and are far from their salvation.

Drink of My fire and you will be floating like vapour, like angels, permeated by My light until you reach Me as rays of light. For you know that even your water can be transformed to light, because in the beginning water was light which through the process of cooling turned first into vapour and, finally, water.

Look at the drops of water in that great lake; one drop could say to the other, "Oh, I love only my neighbours, the drops next to me or below me". - Then My light and My fire would be unable to reach it. Only if a droplet is like a chalice open to heaven and My fire, then My fire will find an echo, a touching point then the droplet will become as hot oil, ignited, ethereal, light; then it is freed from the lake and has risen into My light.

Thus time becomes eternity through the fire of My love; no drop of water can rise up without the help of the sun, and without the sun of My love all creation would become rigid, frozen in eternal death. My love is the life of all beings and he who accepts MY WHOLE LOVE has also MY divine life.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN YOUR CREATOR AND THE CREATED BEING?

Look at a clock movement. One spring sets the whole mechanism in motion. I Am the one who has wound the clock of creation and MY SPIRIT is the main spring setting in motion and acting on everything.

You have to learn to distinguish between Me as the Creator, the eternal source of creation, and that which I create. When a watchmaker makes a clock, he provides it with a suitable spring. I have given MY SPIRIT into creation like such a main spring. Can you say that I AM MY SPIRIT? MY SPIRIT carries My power, I am manifest in it as a part of creation, but as the Creator Himself I Am superior to this main spring, this spirit. MY HOLY SPIRIT is My assimilation to creation of My power. You must recognise that I do manifest in creation, but that I within Me Am immeasurably higher than you are able to grasp at this stage.

Just imagine the difference between the mass of cogwheels and the maker of the clock movement! Just as great is also the difference between Me the Creator and you, the creation. For My creation is a clock movement set in motion by My spirit.

You could ask: "Lord, what is such a clock movement expected to do?" It is expected to run down the spring, to relax more and more until it stops altogether. The spring in this case represents a chain of tasks and missions you have to fulfil, and when the last of these is accomplished, you are perfected. Then the work is completed and you are proven, free and redeemed spirit supporting Me voluntarily in everything out of love.

Thus My Spirit sets you in motion that you may fulfil what I have planned for you. Once this is done, you are no longer pushed through MY Spirit, but free to be independently creative. Then you will have within yourselves a spring which is your love for Me and which will make you do many things for Me and My creation. You will fulfil what My love in your heart orders you to do, and when it is all done I within you will have accomplished everything.

As you can see there is a great difference between Me the Creator and My Spirit. My Spirit can command My power in creation, but I MYSELF Am more than the Holy Spirit, which is a reduced force comparable to low-tension current against Power current. The more you are true to Me according to My Spirit, the more the full force of My Spirit, this DIVINE PRIMAL FORCE, will motivate you and give you the divine life.

You see, only according to your maturity which you attain through being moved by My Spirit you will increasingly receive the divine powers that give you the true divine life.

Be faithful to Me in small things and I will give you greater things, and if you are true in these, I will give you also the ultimate.

RADIATIONS AS REVELATION OF HIGHER LIFE

What are radiations? Outflows of energy. I Am the primal energy! I radiate My love into My creation. He who accepts My love is strong. He can transform this strength, he has power, My power; he passes it on and can even augment it. I Am the source of all power, and whoever has power, received it from Me. There are beings who do receive power from Me, but do not augment it. They receive My graces, but are unaware of them, and although My graces seek to direct them, they do not follow them. Each grace involves a mission, and he who does not fulfil the mission attached to My grace cannot obtain the full measure of My divine powers.

Unless you are willing to serve Me through My graces, I cannot let you have them. You receive these graces generously according to the extent of your service.

If I give you a power which you use well in accordance with My divine will, the flow of graces keeps increasing. And the more faithfully you serve Me, the sooner you attain the crown of all powers - love from My innermost heart.

Be faithful to Me concerning all My gifts, and I shall give you perfection of eternal life.

When there are moments when you are filled by a grace and you let yourselves be carried by its striving to fulfil its innermost will, then its spirit will grow more and more intense within you, and the more you follow it the mightier will be its flow.

There are people who do feel My spirit at times, but do not follow it faithfully. Then enlightenment was given them but for a few moments. However, if a person receives one of My graces, and fulfils what it implies, then he will remain within this flow of spiritual power, then he is filled with it and enlightened according to the degree of his faithfulness. If I give you My love you are expected to follow in its ways. If you allow yourselves to be moved by it, the flow of My love within you is endless. The more faithful and active you follow Me, the more unlimited shall be the power you derive from this. This shows you that as soon as you begin to walk the ways of love, your strength keeps growing so that you are able to radiate it. With this power you can transform everything, heal everything, accomplish everything. Be faithful unto Me to the end and I will give you the crown, the dominion of the children of God, so that with this power you may overcome everything.

AMEN

THE OLD AND THE NEW CONCEPT OF GOD

How did I reveal Myself in most ancient times compared with today?

In ancient times people were not nearly as depraved as is the case today, and pure spirits used to recognise Me as the pure spirit of love. But as purity was lost more and more I could reveal Myself only through My second divine power - MY TRUTH. Since I was no longer accessible to them, I sent them MY WORD. As time went on, mankind fell to an even lower level and so I gave them MY SPIRIT IMPULSES and guided them through prophets. My Spirit urged them on by the pillar of fire (MY WILL).

You see, the lower mankind is sinking the more it forces Me to reveal Myself accordingly. As mankind continued to fall, I revealed Myself to them as ORDER. I gave them philosophy and blessed their intellect while they still had love. However, mankind fell lower still, and I had to show them MY EARNESTNESS through a combination of sternness and clemency. You know how I taught men through judgements, but also by pouring out My graces. When men fell even lower, I revealed Myself as PATIENCE, as the lamb of sacrifice. My long-suffering love was My revelation of past days. But now the time has come for the revelation of MY MERCY since mankind has fallen to the lowest possible spiritual level. This revelation of MY MERCY will be the last and greatest, for I will return to you as the eternal, merciful shepherd to separate the sheep from the rams, taking MY OWN with Me whilst those who do not belong to Me will be fleeing from Me.

How does MY MERCY reveal itself?

In My MERCY I give My self to you, to your flesh. I enlighten your heart, but also your intellect. I show Myself to you bodily and give Myself to you spiritually. Thus only My revelation as MERCY shall bring complete redemption to people of your day - but only if they have recognised My SACRIFICE ON THE CROSS, My patient and long-suffering love and My DIVINE GUIDANCE through thousands of years. For if I give Myself to you, it is for your redemption, and those who reject Me in My MERCY reject their salvation thereby bringing about their total judgement.

MY MERCY is the lowest level at which I can reveal Myself to men and those who do not accept Me in this, will have no hope of salvation for the time being.

For as eternal MERCY I reveal Myself to your flesh and enlighten it that you may recognise Me and the heavens even with your physical senses.

Happy they who will accept Me, but as for those who again reject Me and My SUPREME MERCY, even I can no longer save them from their judgement in eternity.

AMEN.

CAN JUDGEMENTS BE MODERATED?

Let us assume there is an unrighteous servant among many good ones, who owes a great debt to his master. The master gave him many chances, but this servant disregarded them and now the time has come for the master to demand repayment. If the servant is nasty and defiant, his master will show no mercy, but if he is humble and repentant, his master is going to remit a great part of the debt and give him another chance to settle what is owing.

I show mercy to sinners who have become humble, repentant and full of good will for betterment, even if they are already in the middle of their judgement. I seek your betterment that you may be spared judgement.

You may ask Me: "Lord, is it possible for us to moderate also the judgement of others?"

The simplest way to achieve this would be to teach people that only their conversion would moderate their judgement, that instead of opposing Me they come to Me full of love and humility and yield to Me. Once people have changed, also their judgements will go.

You could ask: "Lord, what influence has prayer or blessing over the fate and judgement of the world?"

You are aware that your blessing is nothing else but the conveyance of a doctrine, or an awareness of repentance and love within the hearts of people, in this spirit changing their attitude. For they will receive My grace only when they repent. You do not soften My heart through your prayers, no, but through the pouring out of the spirit you help their hearts to become more righteous and faithful to Me.

You can teach people through the WORD, but you can also radiate a doctrine through your love and this spirit will create a condition, a change of consciousness, a new concept of life. Once men have acquired these they will be given more of My grace and receive mercy. If you ask Me for MY SPIRIT, IT will enter into the hearts of the unfaithful, make them look at themselves spiritually, help them realise their guilt in defying Me and strengthen their will to change. I cannot give My grace to a person without his betterment, a change of will in his heart. If men remain stubborn, I can give them My doctrine, but not My mercy.

I told you already: Teach the nations through the SPIRIT. And if you succeed in this through MY SPIRIT then the judgements will be moderated or turn out for the best so that some of the torment will be short lived and the souls healed fast. - You may ask Me to send MY SPIRIT to people, but remember that this is only on loan. Only when people change, it becomes their property, their lasting blessing.

AMEN.

Message No. 107 (Excerpt)

8th July 1973

WHAT IS MY LIFE?

Think about the blood in your bodies, how it floods all the cells with life-giving substances. Where the blood circulates properly there is health, for the blood springs from the heart, the source of life. As you know, whenever the blood does not fully permeate an organ this becomes sick. For good health the blood has to circulate vigorously through the whole system.

MY SPIRIT can be compared to your bloodstream. It penetrates everything that opens up to it and gives it life. But that which is closed to MY SPIRIT and has no room for it is like a hollow, lifeless form.

This existence without MY SPIRIT I call death.

You could say: "Lord, how does the blood act? Does the same blood give the same substances to each organ?"

You see, your blood - if it is healthy - carries all the elements your body needs for its earthly existence. And each organ draws its requirements from the blood and in turn adds its own elements to it. Hence the blood is the stream of life within you. MY SPIRIT, too, is a stream that contains everything you may ever need. Take from it what you require, but also give in return some thing from yourself.

Let us assume you need strength - take it from the stream of life, but return it again to Me, for all power that has come from Me shall return to Me. This means, use all power to serve Me and glorify Me. You may receive and keep as your property only that which you are prepared to give back to Me. In other words: if people ask Me for My grace without intending to use it in My service and My honour, then it will not be given to them.

If, for instance, you wish to give healing to sick bodies for My sake, so that they may become able to serve Me as living temples - then you will be given this power because you want to do it for Me.

Let us assume you wish to comfort Me by bringing My lost children back to Me. If you have such thoughts you will receive the spirit to guide men the right way, to show them how distant they are from Me and how close I would come if they loved Me. Have the wish to serve Me in any possible way and you will receive out of MY SPIRIT all the power you need for your task. There is a great lack in keen helpers - for the power is given according to the degree of your eagerness.

So remember, MY SPIRIT is like your bloodstream; take from it what you need - for Me - then also your body, your whole earthly being will be nourished and strengthened.

AMEN.

Message No. 45

4th July 1976

THE POURING OUT OF MY SPIRIT OVER ALL, MANKIND IN THE LATTER DAYS.

My Spirit will come over man and guide him into all truth in the same measure and manner as he contacts Me in prayer. Thus it becomes clear that I do not simply bestow My Spirit on all humanity automatically but that they will receive according to their faith and contribution. In the latter days special grace and reward will be granted for faith and prayer. That means that the grace which I give to you in answer to your prayers will be more abundant and richer.

If someone had asked Me for grace in a past century, he would simply have received it; if someone trusts Me completely in the latter days, he will receive tenfold. Thus the measure of grace is multiplied and even then the one with little faith will be touched through this special grace.

These latter days, once thought of as a period of judgement, are in fact a time of grace for the faithful.

See, the dragon is cast to the ground; that means, that whoever does a bad deed at this time will reap the fruits possibly immediately instead of in ten or twenty years. Judgements will be faster and more severe for the faithless and more grace than ever before in any age or era will be granted for the prayers of the good.

Thus it is indeed a fact. The latter days are either a special time of grace or a time of judgement.

The reason for all the diseases, distress and pain of the present time is because men are confused. If they would rely on Me again, faithfully praying, miracles and graces would come as fast to them as judgement to the bad.

In former times the answer to some prayer might have taken many years, in these days it can happen that just one short prayer suffices for immediate response, for with the intensifying of judgements the measure of grace becomes greater also.

This is the balance: The wicked - apparently ever increasing - are being checked through the power of the good. Therefore evil is not gaining at all, for the power of prayer in the good becomes more perfect and mightier. A small plea by a righteous man or woman will have more power than many, many prayers a hundred or a thousand years ago. I will react stronger to prayer and intervene faster.

See, this you must know so as not to be frightened by the advent of the time of judgement for it applies only to the faithless and is a time of grace for the good; a time of the coming marriage feast with the lamb.

You may wonder: "Lord, when are those latter days?"

You will recognise their closeness in the way your prayers are answered faster and more generously; in the way I give ever more to you according to My Word; rushing to meet you, including even the one who is only halfway righteous and good.

Thus you see - as the bad fall deeper and deeper into judgement, the good will be surrounded by miracles. That is justice, for in it is contained the word: "IN THE LATTER DAYS I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT OVER ALL FLESH."

AMEN

15th August 1976

I AM WITHIN AND AROUND YOU.

I dwell within you, above you and everywhere. Every person is within himself a complete creation and although I am the Creator, all creation is at the same time creating, co-shaping and thus every human being is called upon to become a heaven, as redeemed creations have always become heavens. Therefore every man is a heaven.

Heaven is a gathering of beings who carry Me; - imagine it as the presence of holy angels, holy souls within whom I am present in My magnificence.

You might ask: "Lord, are you also present in the air, the water, the plants? Are you on the planet?" and so on. My answer is: If you look for Me within a tree, you have to look at it as part of the whole earth. The earth is like a body and the tree like a limb and at the same time the earth is part of a galaxy and a super-galaxy.

Man in himself, however, is a unity, a separate whole. With each person I redeem a whole creation and therefore every human being is so immensely important to Me; much more than a whole planet or many, many created beings; for those are only like chips off a larger unit.

Thus you see that as human beings you are complete whole creations as is the earth or a solar system or a galaxy - only on a different scale. You are like a planet on a planet, a creation within this creation and thus you must learn to differentiate between the inner, divine indwelling of My Self within you and also in the outer creation. Air, for instance, belongs to the planet which it surrounds.

The important factor for you and also your fellow-man is your innermost, for it is there that you comprehend Me more easily.

Thus it is a fact, a human being, who discovers Me within himself, will also find Me in the larger units of creation.

I am the sun and the divine spark; the forces which are within and around you can be compared to planets of a solar system whom I, the eternal light in your world, attract, move and nourish. Thus I am the centre point within your heart around which everything should move, becoming illuminated, resembling a sun, eventually uniting with Me.

Do not expect salvation from the stars or the elements; remember the Redeemer dwells within your own breast and here you are closest to Me.

Do you understand now that the Kingdom of Heaven is forming within you, because I am offering everything within and not without? The outer belongs to another world-unit, another creation.

You are a reflection of My Deity, for My heart is also My centre and everything that is within and around Me is ruled by this heart and thus I am the archetype and you are likeness or reflection.

AMEN

WHAT IS MAN'S CALLING

Man's calling is to be a priest of God on this earth, a mediator of divine graces. Look at the outer shape of man! With his arms stretched out and upwards and his feet spread apart! The upper body with arms and hands forms an upside down pyramid, the lower body with legs and feet another one. Thus man shows his dual nature: the upper half representing the kingdom of light and the lower half representing the realm of matter. A human being who does not stretch to the light will be unable to channel into nature. Humans who consciously open themselves with their hands to the light, will be transmitters of light for this earth and all nature.

Thus you see that man is in his lower half natural and above the navel begins the reaching into the spiritual worlds. A tree has a crown, here it receives life and passes it down to the rest, thus quickening it to absorb the juices of the ground to enable the tree to be whole. In the same manner man has to draw the light with his upper body and transfer it to his lower self. When the whole body is in the light it will be able to pass it to all nature.

Look at Myself hanging on the cross: hands widely spread, open like a chalice! Is that not a symbol for spiritual man? Thus receive and transmit into nature! In the same measure that you are light within, you can give it to all creatures. It must be clear to you now that many people have no longer antennas for the spiritual but live only from nature. Their hands are hanging low, antennas closed or turned away, all is concentrated down to the natural level.

Let Me tell you, nature cannot live out of itself, it crumbles. Spirit alone makes the body truly alive. One reason for all your suffering lies in the fact that you can no longer absorb the forces of the pure spirit and you thus live at the most from bread; the true life force is not to be found there, the contained life has no power to continue.

Man is a bridge between heaven and earth, he carries both within himself and must be aware of it; directly above the navel, opening towards the head and beyond it. These body parts are called upon to vibrate into those heavenly spheres to draw the corresponding forces down to earth.

Therefor man has an antenna to heaven; his lower half, as an upside funnel, spreading light into the infinity of the kingdom of matter. Humans who only take from matter and do not stretch their hands upwards prefer to live just off nature. Those who draw the light and pass it on to nature are the ones who bear the sign of the Son of Man on their forehead, the forehead being the symbol of My divine Spirit.

The task for the human beings is to be mediators for divine forces on this earth planet and to bring graces and healing to nature. See, My life was the exact realisation of what I am now suggesting to you: I took only from above and brought it down into the natural kingdom.

Thus you call Me by right "the Redeemer". And as I allow the spirit to penetrate into nature it is like sending sunlight into the meadows, developing flowers there, fruits of the spirit, miracles. Is it now clear to you that you have antennas for heaven, that you are to open yourselves to Me and that you are really God's messenger?

Man has purposely the form as it is, the shape of a dual funnel, taking from heaven, giving to earth. As he receives with the upper funnel the highest divine forces, he has the power to spend this light to the very lowest on earth to transform or control it to prevent damage.

In reality you are a divine temple, open to God and bringing grace into the world. That is your whole task.

AMEN.

ABOUT MY BEING AND MY REVELATION

If you would shine a small light on to a star you would see only as much as becomes revealed through it. This also applies to My Being; it depends on the strength of the inner light in the individual on how much he can learn within My Spirit. The strength of the inner light varies in individuals and it follows that they will get to know Me from different aspects. They will exchange their experiences and thus the understanding will grow.

Teaching among the children of God is immensely important, for they compliment one another. At the same time all abilities to grasp My Spirit in its full measure are inherent in everyone. My greatness lies germ-like within every soul and thus also its comprehension and conception. This perfect eye will awaken in man through the teaching of My creation by Me and also through My representation and revelation.

See, you are like children before their father, saying: "Lord, reveal Yourself to us", and I show Myself more and more until you comprehend Me and are aware of the hidden possibilities within you and how you may continue to love Me and be equal to Me.

Thus My revelation of Myself is identical with an expansion of consciousness, a widening of the abilities to love Me and therefor a true enrichment of life. I assure you, the growth in experience of God does not happen just through the purification of the heart, but mainly through My revelation. Thus it is a grace, which - though accepted through purification - still remains My work.

Men would not benefit through purification alone if they did not receive My grace of revelation.

This makes it clear that no man can out of himself comprehend Me fully; he can open himself and then I have to reveal Myself - and thus your love to Me is gaining. No one shall say, "Lord, I find you by myself."

See, when you go into your chamber and open your heart, I have to come to you to reveal My heart and acquaint you with it so you may love it and thus make it yours.

Do you understand now that the saying: "Without Me you are helpless", will apply eternally?

Many of My children believe in their abilities, in the importance of their work; how few believe in My love, in My coming to you? I am prepared to open Myself to you, to grant you an insight into My innermost, that it may become yours through your love. And how little faith do I find here.

I assure you, if you attained your goal in the way you believe you do, your path would be infinitely long. But since I come to meet you, opening up My innermost, you merely have to accept it and by holding your effort, which is important according to My Word, you need the faith, the trust in My help.

This trust in My love can be as infinite as My love. Many of you say, "Lord, I open myself and you do not come or you are not there, therefor it is of no use." I assure you, without this trust in My love I cannot be visible or be experienced by you even though I am there. The "trust" makes Me visible and allows Me to be close.

This so-called trust in God, in MY love, is a gift of the Holy Spirit; it means that you have full confidence in Me in all matters, holding fast to this in faith and therefor making it a fact.

Two things man has to learn mainly and they are: To be open to Me without restriction and to have a boundless trust in My love, grace and mercy. You may say for instance: "Lord, I have faith in You for this or that, but I cannot believe that You might still do more for me." Thus you limit your love through lack of trust and that means it is still bound and not yet liberated.

I said once, "You will fare according to your faith." That means if you trust in Me in infinite love in all sincerity you believe in My greatness and then it will be a reality for you.

You will understand now that if you see Me in the size of a mustard seed I will be just as potent for you. If you see Me as a sun and that I love My enemies with the fire of a thousand suns, you will experience Me in that way. As the faith, so is the experience, and you have to firmly believe in Me. See, this does not happen quickly. When I am something to you, you have to look at it, contemplate, as you believe it, it becomes reality, a part of you. This boundless trust would not be possible without My revelation and you would not know in what to believe and how to trust. Thus My revelation is the preparation for boundless trust in My love and the basic ingredient for your eternal perfect unfoldment.

My revelation is an expression of My love, of My Being, with each one I allow you to look deeper into My heart, to trust in it, to contemplate it, to hold fast to it, to experience it.

And I say to you: "If I did not reveal Myself to you, you would never discover Me, especially not in the depth in which I show and still will show Myself.

So you see, your whole life is truly "Grace and Mercy."

AMEN

ABOUT THE FORGIVING OF GUILT

A guilt is cancelled only when it is settled or paid for. Thus I cannot simply forgive a guilt by saying that I wipe it out; the real forgiving can be achieved only through repair of the consequences. Thus you should always ask Me for the actual reparation and not just for forgiveness.

See, you believe that it is all over once I have forgiven; but I have to straighten the crooked paths, close the gaps, heal the wounds and bring the lost again to the light.

Thus it is not possible to forgive without reparation.

If a man, because he committed either knowingly or unknowingly an error, wished to repair the damage, he would soon see that this is not quite possible. If he had led, for instance, someone astray, this person might have stayed on the wrong path for ten years. Through loving care by the first man the second might be brought back onto the right path, but ten years have been lost and the many errors and mistakes that happened along the way also have to be atoned for.

The redeeming factors are My grace and mercy, without which no full reparation of any guilt or trespass is possible; thus I settle your debts.

See, I want you to follow My path; how long did it take you to hear My voice?

How many decades of your life passed before you became true to me, is that not a guilt? Today you might say: "Lord, I am prepared to go Your way", but what about all those other years? Have they just disappeared or are they full of wrongdoing? All that was neglected I have to draw back to the light through My mercy; I have to make atonement through special graces so the past does not lie like a millstone around your neck. I have to renew everything. Many of you follow their true calling at the age of sixty instead of six and therefor have wasted many years and done much wrong. If My mercy, My reparation did not come to the rescue, how could you attain bliss?

Thus you see, it is not enough to simply forgive your trespasses, I have to cancel your guilt and heal the injury with the bliss of My grace.

Very few of you are active in the task I have selected for you for this time. Many are far behind in their development and thus cannot fulfil their actual task. See, it is a great sorrow that the good do not mature as fast as the wicked and truly, I not only need to close one eye but two to overlook My children's faults.

How few are able to stand on their own two feet, let alone supporting others?

If it was not for My mercy, how would you progress and reach your goal?

All of you are truly dependant on My mercy, because it alone makes the crooked straight, the wicked holy and fills the emptiness.

Your guilt resembles the contents of a chalice which you pass to Me and I accept; in return I fill the cup with the grace of My mercy and thus replace guilt with divine grace and all is settled. This way you might regain lost decades within a short time and find your allotted place.

The children of light are asleep. If they would waken, that means fulfil their task, then darkness would not have a fraction of the power on earth as it does today. The children of light are immature, the children of darkness almost fully ripe and in your time I still have to do many miracles to achieve at least a certain enforced maturity in those souls who wasted many years of their life. That is why I say: "Wake up!"

AMEN

Message No. 70

9th October 1976

OF SATAN'S POWER NOW AND IN THE LAST DAYS

Whom does the darkness fear? You human beings? Hardly, it fears you as little as you fear an ant. Does evil fear an angel? Does a grown man fear a child?

Evil fears only the Almighty.

All might in heaven and earth is Mine, that means I am omnipotent in heaven and earth. When thus all might is Mine, evil must be powerless. Mine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Rulership. Evil can be in conflict with you and even with angels but never with Me because I Am the Almighty. Any conflict takes place always between created beings and evil, once I appear on the scene the evil is helpless. Therefor, do not fight it yourselves but allow My arm to work for you.

For Me everything is possible in heaven and earth. What does that mean exactly? I am the Lord over everything there is and have all freedom to move within or without the law for I am the law and no one can restrict Me.

Do you understand now why it is said that I am Almighty? Because I am the Law, the One who made it and thus is all powerful.

You will witness evil rearing up like a giant and you will be frightened; remember then My words: Do not struggle with evil yourselves but pass it to Me and I, the Almighty, will overcome it. What will become of it? A breath of Mine will blow it away as if it had never been.

Do you understand now how important it is to know the One Who is Almighty in heaven and earth and Who also has the key to hell, which is the symbol of command? But who knows Me? My name is mentioned frivolously and only a few know Me intimately. Who am I, the One Who is Omnipotent? In JESUS I became a human being, in Him I worked for your redemption. I am the One Who was active within JESUS as JESUS and thus it is My revelation.

Do you understand now that by using My Name all elements will be under your command? And that in My Name you are able to do things that are impossible for humans? By using My Name I will appear and work like

One who is Almighty, Who cannot be stopped, Who knows no limits and thus makes everything whole.

In the last fight do not even depend on an angel or any other created being, in the last fight only I will be victorious.

A created being has power to the extent that I Am dwelling within him. But distinguish well between Me within a being and the being himself. You may say: "Lord, You Who dwells within an angel!" or, "Lord, You Who are within a risen soul!" You must use My name, then I will help you.

It will come about that the larger part of the human race will be as if caught in the gears of a machine and be mangled and mashed like grapes for wine. Behold: Evil will be powerful over mankind until they call for Me. Then I will save them; and those who do not call will not be helped.

Your trust must only be in the One, for I Am victorious in all your fights.

AMEN

Message No. 74

23rd October 1976

ABOUT MY SELF

Once I said, that My innermost Self is My heart and My body My Temple and also that the same, spiritually seen, applies to you.

When you speak of Me you first picture My body, My appearance as JESUS OF NAZARETH. As Jesus I was revealed in a body and thus the Deity had a physical appearance. Jesus is therefor according to His body a Temple, the most perfect Temple, of the infinite Deity. The love within Jesus and His activities is a revelation of My heart.

Thus I make a distinct difference between the person Jesus and His love; the "body" being a likeness of the Deity, the love within the Deity Itself, the divine Spirit.

Many humans argue as to the real image of Jesus, but arguing about a temple is wrong because the heart of the Deity, My love, is disclosed also. If you would see Me a hundred or a thousand times in the flesh you would not have recognised My Self if you failed to recognise My love. My love is My being or My Self and those who remain within it, remain within Me and I within them.

If man would look at My life as Jesus, the path of My flesh, he would see divine works; but behind all those achievements was a love, a will to redeem and to raise creation. My love, My incarnation into your being was the first cause for all My works.

See, to recognise My heart means to recognise My love; it reveals itself with the words: "You are created as parts of My great divine body. I want to dwell fully within you as a part of you. I, the perfect One want to be manifest fully in the parts. For this I will open all paths and give Myself to you in My fullness to be exactly as perfect in all the parts - therefor in you - as I Am within My Self. It is an expression of My love that I created you as My limbs, that I may give Myself to you as the whole to the part and that I want to be within you in all perfection."

You may wonder: "Lord, how may we win Your infinite perfection?" All you have to do is to be open for it, accepting it, yielding to Me and My divine will, allowing Me to dwell and grow within you as your self decreases.

My love reveals Itself in My infinite truth, in the will to give Myself to you, to be perfection within you.

See, this was My innermost aim and will in My life as Jesus also and those who are prepared to serve others to serve Me I will give the grace to man with My power.

What is your contribution? Only that you say: "Lord, I am your vessel, I want You to be the light within me." And further, "Lord, I want to be a light of your light" and "Lord, the flame that you are within Me may kindle me too that I burn within Your divine fire to be part of Your Self".

Do you understand the language of My love and what love means?

It is an enormous task, a vast life of God within you, the full manifestation of the Deity within your being.

Thus I gave you words of life, fulfil them and My grace will soon follow and behold; those who accept My word in good faith and are prepared to live accordingly will receive strength to 'live them' in reality. And so be it.

AMEN

ABOUT FULFILMENT

When a farmer sows wheat he hopes to harvest soon in plenty and he does reap many times the amount he put into the ground. Is wheat in its natural state already its highest form? No, it is just grain which first has to be ground into flour and then baked into bread.

A human being is a good field; I am like a farmer, sowing My Word like wheat. When man accepts more and more of My word he resembles a rich wheat field. As the ripe wheat is not its highest form but the baked bread, the fully informed and knowing human must transform all truth he receives from Me into bread, that means into works of love. Thus all knowledge and perception amount to the same as if man has good wheat; to achieve perfection the human being has to live within love which expresses truth.

See, My truth wants to show you My heart, how good it is, how great My love is for you and all beings. The time will come when you will be aware that this love of Mine has to be alive within you, you have to realise it and live accordingly.

Thus in the life of man are two great steps; to gather truth and to realise love which is the innermost fruit of truth.

My truth is absolutely important; it is like the absorption of good within you; it is an inner treasure which has to be brought once more to the outside, to be multiplied into outer activity.

Thus truth is the same as being filled with knowledge; love is to transform the word into action, to live within that spirit of which My truth is speaking.

You know a number of people who have quite a lot of the truth within themselves. But behold, they are merely gathering; if they lived according to this truth they would bring fruit. Many of you are still of the opinion that it is enough to be full of knowledge but I assure you, not even knowing the highest truth is enough. It would compare to a well which only gathers the waters without giving forth any. To live is to flow, to pass on, you have to use and apply as much as you are receiving from Me!

The wisest angels are not on the same level as the perfect ones; they may have perceived the secrets of My love but their degree of perfection is only as high as their living within it.

Perfection then, the perfect fruit of perfect teaching in truth is like love and perfect fulfilment of it through an activity in it.

That means, do as I commanded you and you will be perfect. Now I have to speak of the depth in the perception of truth and how this knowledge can mature to love and activity. See, the highest truth does not consist of gathering facts about the constellations or laws of the universe - it wants to tell you of My love and mercy. To perceive My mercy is like receiving light from the outside; active involvement is illumination from within. Thus man carries Me, the most merciful, within himself, he is My garment within which I am active.

Why is the accomplishment so important? See, I can speak My word from without to within which gives a certain light, but when you live according to My spirit then I "dwell" within you, filling you. Not that you are merciful then, but I am as merciful within you as I am within Myself. If you can be like Me, as My outer garment, then I, the perfection, Am risen in you perfect ones perfectly.

A time will come when a number of people know of My mercy and live accordingly and I will dwell within them. See, that is the perfection of the children of God in the future; every one of My words will become fact and mercy will become apparent within them because I am in-dwelling, achieving miracles of which you today do not even dare to dream.

Do you understand now, truth is light; to live within it means to live within God and God within you.

In the latter days I will illuminate all minds and reveal the highest truth and you will penetrate deeply into your heart and also into the Deity and a greater power than ever before will be within the children of God in those times.
